

HON. ANAMERO DEKERI SUNDAY EMPOWERS AUCHI TAILORS' UNION WITH SEWING MACHINES

In fulfillment of his campaign promises and his continuous drive to empower the people of Etsako Federal Constituency, Hon. Anamero Dekeri Sunday has presented sewing machines to the Auchi Tailors' Union.

This empowerment initiative is aimed at boosting the productivity of artisans, supporting small businesses, and enhancing self-reliance among members of the union. The gesture further demonstrates the Honourable Member's unwavering commitment to improving the socio-economic wellbeing of his constituents.

Speaking at the presentation, Hon. Anamero Dekeri Sunday reiterated his resolve to always stand by his promises:

"I am deeply committed to ensuring that every sector of Etsako benefits from meaningful empowerment and development. This gesture is part of my campaign pledge, and I will continue to work tirelessly to touch lives and uplift communities across the constituency."

The Auchi Tailors' Union, in their response, commended the Honourable Member for his sincerity and dedication to the welfare of the people, describing him as a true promise keeper and a leader with a heart for service.

Beyond this empowerment, Hon. Anamero Dekeri Sunday has embarked on numerous ongoing projects across Etsako Federal Constituency—covering infrastructure, education, healthcare, youth empowerment, and human capacity development. His efforts are already transforming lives and strengthening the foundation for sustainable growth in the constituency.

The Office of Hon. Anamero Dekeri Sunday assures the good people of Etsako Federal Constituency that more impactful projects and empowerment initiatives are underway, as the Honourable Member remains committed to his vision of effective representation, people-driven development, and genuine service to humanity.

Signed:

Office of Hon. Anamero Dekeri Sunday

Member Representing Etsako Federal Constituency,

Edo State.